Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the criminal complaint and the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 33-year old born in San Angelo, Texas. His parents live in San Angelo, his 2 sisters live in the Houston area, and he resides with an Aunt and Uncle in Houston. He has never been married but has 4 children. He most recently was employed by his Uncle as a carpentry laborer. He denied having a passport or traveling outside the country.
2. Defendant is accused of conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute 5 kilograms or more of a mixture or substance containing cocaine and using/carrying a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime. Defendant faces a potential penalty of 10 years to life in prison.
3. Defendant has a criminal history that includes aggravated assault causing bodily injury, burglary, and possession of a prohibited substance at a correction facility. He has previously had probation revoked. He admits regular marijuana and cocaine use.
4. Defendant has not rebutted the statutory presumptions that he is a flight risk and a danger to the community.
5. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
